COURSE OVERVIEW:

An in-depth study of the Atonement of Jesus Christ using Elder Tad R. Callister's book, "The Infinite Atonement" as our organizing framework. We will use the scriptures and words of the prophets as our foundation and our guide as we study His great atoning sacrifice.

"Some things simply matter more than others. Even some doctrines, though interesting and even fun to discuss, must take a back seat to more fundamental and foundational doctrines. It is just so with the Atonement of Jesus Christ. The Atonement is the central act of human history, the pivotal point in all time, the doctrine of doctrines. Everything we do and everything we teach should somehow be anchored to the Atonement."

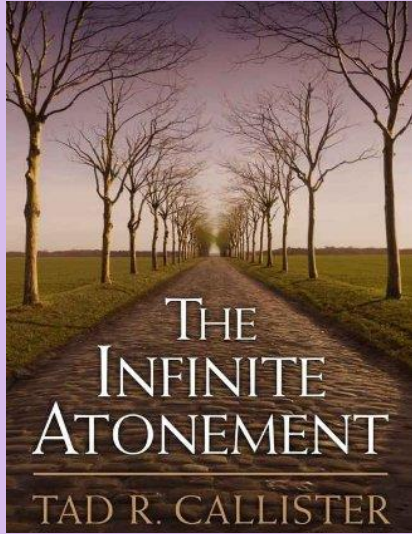

-Robert L. Millet

Dean of Religious Education and Professor of Ancient Scripture

Brigham Young University

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Deepen your conversion to Jesus Christ and His restored Gospel.
- Increase your desire and effort to live principles and doctrine of the gospel and become more like Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.

INSTITUTE & TRANSFER CREDIT (OPTIONAL):

If you are interested in getting institute credit toward graduation or for transfer to a Church university, you must do the following.

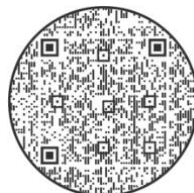

- Attend 75% or more classes
- Read 75% or more of the assigned readings
- Complete an Elevate Learning Experience (Complete one of the following)
 - Study Journal: Utilize a study journal throughout the semester to document "God's dealings" with you. This can include notes on each lesson, your thoughts and experience with the readings, and revelation you receive.
 - Distillation on the Atonement: At the conclusion of this course write a 1-page paper about what have you learned about the Atonement of Jesus Christ, what does the Atonement of Jesus Christ mean to you, how you might describe the Atonement of Jesus Christ to someone.
 - Personal Learning Project: Plan and complete a project that focuses on doctrines and principles from the course, evidence of your learning and application, and a summary of how your faith in Jesus Christ has increased. This can be done through any medium.
