LOVE

Love many things, for therein lies the true
strength, and whosoever
loves much performs much, and can accomplish much,
and what is done in love is done well.

What questions do you have about the women in the scriptures?

President Gordon B. Hinckley counseled the women of the Church:

“It is so tremendously important that the women of the Church stand strong and immovable for that which is correct and proper under the plan of the Lord. ...

“We call upon the women of the Church to stand together for righteousness. They must begin in their own homes. They can teach it in their classes. They can voice it in their communities.”

The Influence of Righteous Women

Dieter F. Uchtdorf

The Prophet Joseph Smith told the sisters,

“If you live up to your privileges,
the angels cannot be restrained
from being your associates.”

President Heber J. Grant said,

“Without the devotion and absolute testimony of the living God in the hearts of our mothers, this Church

would die.”

“The world has enough women who are tough;

we need women who are tender.

There are enough women who are coarse;

we need women who are kind.

There are enough women who are rude;

we need women who are refined.

We have enough women of fame and fortune;

we need more women of faith.

We have enough greed;

we need more goodness.

We have enough vanity;

we need more virtue.

We have enough popularity;

we need more purity.”

In blurring feminine and masculine differences, we lose the distinct, complementary gifts of women and men that together produce a greater whole.
